

Folk customs

October

In order to draw attention to the project we showed our and other countries folk costumes on the Erasmus board to the new pupils attending our school explaining them what the project is about, the countries involved and the aim of it.

