Rancho Folclórico de Custoias is our local folk band. It started in May 1953. More recently they got a Cultural Merit prize (in 2001) and another one in 2005 Association prize of collectivism. They have performed abroad in 1971 and 1973 (Spain and England) and often in France.

During their performances they try to disseminate our ethnography as well as music. In 1973 this band got the first prize of the folk Costume Contest in Vila Praia de Âncora, a small town in the northwest of Portugal.

More recently they got a Cultural Merit prize (in 2001) and another one in 2005 Association prize of collectivism. They have performed abroad between 1971 and 1973 (Spain and England) and often in France.
