
29th October CUMHURİYET BAYRAMI REPUBLIC DAY in TURKEY

On the 29th of every year Turkey celebrates Cumhuriyet Bayramı or Republic Day in Turkey. This day marks the anniversary of the declaration of the independence of Turkey.

On the 29th of October 1923 the Grand National Assembly proclaimed the Republic of Turkey and named Mustafa Kemal Atatürk as the first President of Turkey .

Turkish people celebrate Republic day in Turkey every year on the 29th of October which is an official holiday in Turkey. Schools celebrate this day with presentations, sing songs, displays and readings. All official government offices and schools are closed and there are many celebrations throughout the country. There are also official celebrations in the capital city of Ankara including a ceremony at the Anıtkabir, Atatürk's Mausoleum. You also see the Turkish flags everywhere and flags and banners depicting Atatürk.

